MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 9.

A WIDOW SHOOTS HER SUITER.-At a late hour Saturday night a shooting affray, which will result fatally, took place in West Hoboken, N. J., near the extreme northern limit of Jersey City. The persons concerned were John Kennedy, an unmarried man, twenty five years old, and a widow named Mrs. A. ty five years old, and a widow named Mrs. A. Toner, both of whom resided on Jersey City Heights. Mrs. Toner has been a widow for little more than a year, and for the past three or four months Kennedy has been paying devoted attention to her. It was rumored that they were engaged to be married. About ten o'clock Saturday night Kennedy and Mrs. Toner went out walking, and proceeded toward West Hoboken. On reaching West street, ward West Hoboken. On reaching West street, in the latter township, they stopped in front of a house occupied by Mr. Quigley, and soon their voices were heard in an angry altercation. From the little that could be gathered of their conversation it appeared that Kennedy accused the lady of being untaithful to him. which so angered her that she finally drew a revolver from the bosom of her dress, and, pointing it at her companion's head, fired. As soon as she had discharged the weapon she ran away and disappeared in the darkness before the arrival of some men who were attracted by the noise of the explosion. Kennedy was found lying senseless on the sidewalk, with the blood pouring from a wound in his face. He was carried to the residence of Dr. Rau, near by, who found that the ball had entered just below the right eye and close to the nose. He was standso close to the woman when she fired that the powder scorched his face. Dr. Rau probed the wound and dressed it, but was unable to find the ball. Kennedy was subsequently taken to St. Mary's Hospital, in Hoboken, where he now lies in a very critical condition; in fact, scarcely any hopes are entertained of his recovery. The authorities have made diligent search for Mrs. Toner, but thus far their efforts have been unsuccessful.

according to a Washington carrespondent, by Senator Zack Chandler, an Administration man and more or less friendly to Butler. Simmons, the new Butler Collector at Boston, is fond, it seems, of bragging on his origin, his former poverty, and the humble employment of his youth. In talk with Senator Chandler, who was congratulating him on his and Butler's Custom-house triumph, Mr. Simmons, as usual, referred to the days when he was a knife-cleaner in a hotel, whereupon Mr. Chandler remarked: "Well, what between your knives and Butler's spoons you have done d-d well."-Norfolk Virginian.
